BIG BAD BREAKFAST IS NOT YOUR AVERAGE BREAKFAST JOINT. IN FACT, IT'S NOT JUST FOR BREAKFAST.

The brainchild of James Beard award-winning chef John Currence, Big Bad Breakfast is a Fresh Hospitality concept that specializes in giving the proper respect to "the most important meal of the day". At Inlet Beach, we're mixing things up by adding fresh Gulf seafood to BBB staples such as custom-created meats, fresh biscuits and preserves, locally roasted coffee and some of the best cocktails you'll find anywhere. We wear our "Big Bad" name as a badge of honor and take special pride in serving all your Southern favorites with the creativity and technique that only a skilled, world-renowned chef can bring to the table.

Chef Currence, a New Orleanian by birth, began cooking in Chapel Hill, NC under the tutelage of Bill Neal at Crooks Corner, one of the Eastern Seaboard's premiere Southern, fine-dining institutions. Under Neal, John began his training in the unusual cross of classical French technique and traditional Deep Southern American cuisine. Currence returned to New Orleans at the behest of a high school friend, Larkin Selman, to open Gautreau's, where he worked as Selman's sous chef. After several years, Currence moved on to the Brennan family of restaurants to help open Bacco before finally settling in Oxford, MS in 1992 and opening City Grocery. In the time since, his City Grocery Restaurant Group has seen a number of openings, including Nacho Mama's, Kalo's, Ajax Diner, City Grocery Catering Company, Bouré, Big Bad Breakfast and Snackbar.

We hope you enjoy your time with us. Please visit our other Big Bad Breakfast locations in Oxford, MS, Birmingham, AL, Homewood, AL, Florence, AL and (coming soon to) Charleston, SC.
